May Happenings

Dues

If you haven't paid your dues yet, please forward your dues to our treasurer, Anna DeConti as soon as you can.

Annual Picnic

On Tuesday, May 19 starting at 10:00 a.m. we will meet at the lovely home of Linda Curcio and an auction conducted by Don Basnight will start at 10:30 a.m.

Members are asked to bring gardening items such as small tools, gloves, plant signs, decorative flower pots, vases and any other items you think a gardener might like to have.

A salad luncheon will follow. The BOD members will bring desserts and all other members are asked to bring a ready to serve salad for 8 people and any serving utensil. Unsweet iced tea, water and lemonade will be available.

We will sit at tables for eight and the food will be placed on tables under 3 tents. Since the garden has both shade and sunny areas, you might want to bring an umbrella or wear a hat if you prefer to avoid the sun.

A brief business meeting will be held and life and perennial members will be recognized. The person who spends the most money on auction items will receive a special prize. The installation of Executive Board officers will take place and a vote on the budget will be held. Members are welcome to bring guests. The table centerpieces will be provided by Linda Curcio and Jan Dean. The picnic should conclude by 1:00 p.m. There is a long half circle driveway at Linda's house and this is available for parking. If this is full, please drive down to the cul de sac at the end of Linda's street, turn around and park on the right side of the street.

Carolina Moonlight Gala

On Saturday, June 6 from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. the NCBG will hold its annual fundraising party with auctions, food, drinks, and music. It is a wonderful evening and tickets are available now on their website.

Awards

At the recent GCNC annual meeting the club won 4 awards for 2013 and 2014. The club received a scroll of recognition for publications-magazine for a large club. The club won a third place award for the website and another third place award for the yearbook. A first place award was given to the club for the Garden Tour along with a $25 check. Everyone who participated in these activities should be very proud of their efforts.

Hope to see you at the picnic on May 19.

Best,
Betty
